Emerging Elite Coaches Camp
Information & Application
July 2 – 6, 2012

Elite U.S. coaches will be selected to attend the USATF Emerging Elite Coaches Camp, which will include the Sprints/Hurdles, Throws (shot put, discus, javelin & hammer) and Jumps (long, high, triple & pole vault). Coaches are responsible for travel expenses and the camp fee of $450 for double occupancy or $650 for single occupancy. The fee covers housing & meals at the Olympic Training Center (checks payable to USATF). USATF and the USOC will provide transportation to and from the San Diego Airport. USATF Men's/Women's Development and the High Performance Committee will provide World Class Coaches as Camp Clinicians. Coaches should only apply if you can arrive by 3:00 pm on July 2nd and not depart until July 6th (July 6th is a travel day, no sessions will be held).

SELECTION CRITERIA
Coaches will be selected based on their proven ability to develop athletes in their respective event(s) to state and national levels, and their projected potential to develop future Olympic medalists. The objective of the camp is to inspire current elite high school, club and college coaches, while enhancing their education and developing them into coaches of Olympic and World Championship athletes. All applicants must be members of USATF and the Coaches Registry. At the camp coaches will be required to:

- Attend and observe all classroom and field sessions in the respective event;
- Participate in coaches Rap Sessions;
- Receive all camp handouts and complete follow-up evaluation; and
- Participate in informal discussions before/between/after sessions with staff, and other coaches.

GRANT OPPORTUNITY
Ten (10) grants will be available to assist coaches with the camp fee. If interested in applying for a grant, please submit a written request noting the reason the grant is needed and a letter of recommendation. These items should be submitted along with the camp application.
