I authorize the charge of $40 to the above credit card as part of the USOC High Performance Center application process. I understand that I must complete the entire process including passing a USOC background check, registering online, submitting and completing the required USOC forms.

1. USATF reserves the right to deny the above benefits to any individual who (a) has been convicted of a doping violation; or (b) is under investigation by USADA or other authorities. USATF also may deny benefits to coaches whose actions have indicated unethical patterns of behavior. Personal coaches' benefits are not available to family members unless said member is the coach of record.
2. No coach or support staff who is currently banned or under investigation by the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency (USADA) may be authorized to receive Olympic Games benefits.

Note: Personal Coaches, Personal Medical and Athlete Representatives will be responsible for obtaining their own visa for entrance into China.

Please fax this form to USA Track & Field Attn: Sariyu "Beka" Suggs to (317) 261-0514
