ATHLETE REPRESENTATION IN USATF

ATHLETES ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Athletes Advisory Committee (AAC) is an integral part of USA Track & Field. Athletes have a minimum of 20% representation on ALL USATF committees, task forces and boards.

The basic purpose of the AAC is to provide an athlete voice on all issues pertaining to track & field and all other disciplines. The AAC provides a unified voice for the athletes in regard to all aspects of USATF, including such items as time schedules for meets, staff selections, drug testing and competition rules.

The AAC provides funding for qualifying athletes to attend the Annual Meeting of USA Track & Field, which is usually held the first week in December. The AAC reviews all legislation that the NGB proposes and then endorses, modifies, or rejects the legislation. If you are interested in attending this meeting, please contact Jon Drummond, AAC Chair (see the AAC Contacts on the following page).

The AAC is made up of male and female event leaders who represent broad event groups. Event leaders are responsible for gathering information and concerns from the athletes in their event areas and sharing those concerns during monthly AAC conference calls. Once the issues are identified and possible solutions are discussed, these concerns are raised at the Annual Meeting for implementation and/or additional planning. This system provides the most current flow of information relating to athlete issues. If you have a concern or problem, please do not hesitate to call your AAC event leader.

To be an event leader or officer, you must be an active athlete. An active athlete is defined as “an athlete who has competed for the United States in international Athletics competition held under IAAF jurisdiction within the last ten (10) years.” (USATF Governance Manual, pg. 25)

The AAC also selects “Athlete Liaisons” for most international competitions. The purpose of these liaisons is to represent athlete needs at those competitions. You do not have to be an event leader to be an athlete liaison.

USATF, USOC RESOURCES

Within the USA Track & Field National Office, there is a complete department designated to assist elite athletes and answers your questions. If they cannot help you with your problem, they can direct you to the proper source for an answer. A comprehensive list with job descriptions of National Office staff is included in the back of this handbook.

The USOC has also established a person to assist Elite Athletes with questions and issues relating directly to Olympic issues. John Ruger is the current USOC Athlete Ombudsman. Although not a legal position, John serves as a process and informational resource. He assists you in inquiries concerning eligibility, team selection, financial assistance, doping control, right to compete, and similar matters. Contact him at 1-888-Athlete.

ANNUAL MEETING FUNDING

The 2009 Annual Meeting will be held December 2-6 in Indianapolis, Indiana. Applications for funding to attend this year's meeting will be available on the USATF website beginning September 1.

Due to budget limitations, AAC is only able to fund a limited number of athletes, so we encourage everyone to contact their local Associations as well. Associations will often fund athletes as delegates, which in turn maximizes our athlete representation. For local association contact information, please refer to the Associations section of our website, <http://www.usatf.org/associations/>.

Also, please keep in mind that AAC funding will cover airfare and hotel accommodations only.

ATHLETE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

In December 1999, USA Track & Field announced the formation of its Athlete Alumni Association (USATFAAA). The purpose of this association is to maintain communication with other track & field alumni, to encourage continued involvement in the sport and to provide networking and mentoring opportunities for track & field alumni as well as current athletes.

Retirement is not required to participate in the USATFAAA. Any track and field athlete who is a U.S. citizen and who competed in an open national championship recognized by USA Track & Field is eligible.

In 2006, USATFAAA organized the 50th reunion for the 1956 Olympic Team that competed in Melbourne. Ten members of that team attended the 2006 AT&T USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships, participated in on-field award presentations and were recognized during the competition. Please contact Sharrieffa Barksdale at blairs3833@yahoo.com to find out more about the Alumni Association or visit them on the web at <http://www.usatf.org/groups/alumni>.

USA TRACK & FIELD BOARD OF DIRECTORS

USA Track & Field in 2009 has a new constituted, 15-person Board of Directors. The board includes National Track & Field Hall of Famer and sports consultant Willie Banks; National Track & Field Hall of Famer and the first acting President of USATF's predecessor organization, The Athletics Congress (TAC), Dr. Evie Dennis; former world-class athlete and business executive Steve Holman; USATF official and youth track and field activist Kim Haines; businesswoman and former USATF women's long-distance running chair Elizabeth Phillips; international sports executive and former business professor Steve Miller; NASCAR executive and entertainment executive Max Siegel; longtime USATF official and practicing CPA Kenneth Taylor; and retired health-care industry executive Jack Wickens.

Athlete members include a trio of three-time Olympians: four-time USA 50km race walk champion and 1999 Pan Am Games bronze medalist Philip Dunn; 2004 Olympic marathon bronze medalist and two-time World Cross Country silver medalist Deena Kastor; and four-time national discus champion and 2003 Pan Am Games gold medalist Aretha Hill Thurmond.

Board members specified by USATF bylaws are President Stephanie Hightower and IAAF Council Member Robert Hersh. USATF's "5E" member organizations, including the NCAA, NAIA and National Federation of State High School Associations, named Jeff Darman as their representative.

The demographics of the board reflect the diversity of the sport: seven of the 15 members currently named are African-American and five are women; of those with world-class athletic backgrounds in the sport, the sprints/hurdles, jumps, middle distances, long distances, race walks and throws are represented. Nearly all are established businesspeople.

In sweeping bylaw changes overwhelmingly approved by USATF membership at its Annual Meeting in Reno, Nevada, on December 13, the Board was reduced in size from 31 members to 15. The USATF President, IAAF Council Member, 5E representative and three athlete representatives are selected directly by their constituencies. The six seats nominated by USATF's High Performance, Long Distance Running, General Competition, Youth, Coaches and Officials divisions, as well as three independent seats, were vetted and ultimately selected by USATF's Nominating and Governance Panel.
