Advanced Summit Options

Jumps

Sprints

Endurance

A maximum of 150 participants per event group will be admitted

The Advanced Coaching Summits are open to anyone wishing to attend; no previous completion of a USATF Coaching Education program is required. In order for participation in this program to count toward completion of the Level 3 requirements, coaches must have already completed at least one area of Level 2. A maximum of 150 participants will be admitted into each Advanced Summit, therefore applicants are encouraged to register early.

Housing and Meal Plan: An optional housing and meal plan is available to those applicants who register BEFORE May 27th. The early housing and meal plan deadline is necessary because USATF must provide Loyola University with our final count of rooms and meal plans needed no later than May 28th. Complete details of the housing and meal plan can be found at <http://www.usatf.org/groups/Coaches/education/schools/level2/2007/LOYOLA/housing.asp> in the Loyola Level 2 School information section found on the calendar of schools.

Fee Payment: All applications must be accompanied by payment in full. USATF accepts checks, money orders and VISA. VISA is the only credit card accepted by USATF. Interested coaches may register for this program until June 23rd, however the room and board package will not be available after May 27th.
